REDEFINING PAIN MANAGEMENT

Chronic pain remains one of the most significant challenges in modern healthcare - impacting mobility, emotional wellbeing, and overall quality of life. For millions of people, existing treatments such as medication, injections, or surgery often fall short of providing effective relief.

Today, there's a new option changing the conversation around pain care: The Magstim Rapid - now FDA cleared for the treatment of chronic pain.*

This pain therapy solution delivers a proven, non-invasive, drug-free approach to managing pain.

Magstim uses targeted Magnetic Stimulation to modulate neural pathways involved in pain perception, helping patients experience reduced pain intensity, improved physical function, and enhanced quality of life.

PAIN RELIEF, REIMAGINED FOR PATIENTS

Magstim Rapid fits effortlessly into a modern clinical workflow, offering a smarter, simpler approach to chronic pain care:

- No drugs. No downtime. No surgery.
- Clinically validated for the management of chronic, post-surgical, and post-traumatic pain.
- Designed for multidisciplinary use - from pain clinics, physiotherapy to rehabilitation centers and other care settings.
- Supports recovery and function, helping patients return to daily life with confidence.

Whether applied as a stand-alone therapy or combined with existing modalities, Magstim Rapid delivers a new dimension of care - one rooted in science, not side effects.

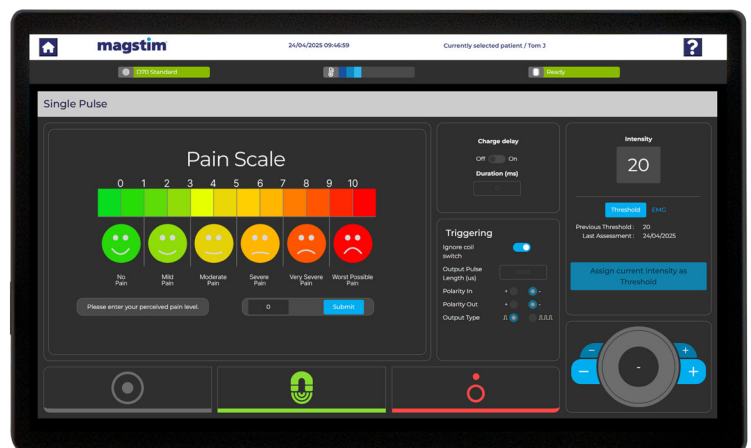

EFFICIENT. EFFECTIVE. EVIDENCE-BASED.

Developed with busy clinical environments in mind, Magstim Rapid is built for everyday use:

- Compact, easy-to-operate system
- Rapid setup and treatment delivery
- Backed by robust clinical research and decades of neuromodulation expertise

Empower your patients with a new standard in pain therapy - advanced, accessible, and results-driven.
